A History of Civilizations by Braudel, Fernand (9780140124897)

When Fernand Braudel originally published this text in the sixties, he became a pariah at the Sorbonne. In retrospect that disapprobation was the kind of seal of approval that "banned in Boston" came to embody. Previous histories drilled deep into one facet of history. Braudel's was a pioneering effort in multidisciplinary historical analysis.

A History of Civilizations: Braudel, Fernand, Mayne

In 1962, he wrote A History of Civilizations as the basis for a history course, but its rejection of the traditional event-based narrative was too radical for the French ministry of education, which in turn rejected it. A feature of Braudel's work was his compassion for the suffering of marginal people.
